New Englanders hardly ever need to check the calendar for the onset of fall. Instead, the maple sugar hues of red, orange and yellow signal the seasonal changes on their own. You'll note these as you travel along the scenic roads of Central Massachusetts. Enjoy the by-ways and highways as you head to the Quabbin Reservoir area and West Brookfield's Salem Cross Inn. You'll initially enjoy a delicious full course luncheon, featuring Soup du Jour, a Fresh Garden Salad, Salem Cross' famous Chicken Pie or Grilled Salmon entrée and a Scrumptious Dessert. After this wonderful luncheon, you'll be joined by a native tour guide who will take you throughout the Quabbin Reservoir, explaining how local Villages and Towns were flooded so that the reservoir, containing 424 billion gallons of water, could be constructed. You'll then visit Brookfield Orchards, home of one of New England's largest apple growers. As you stroll through the store you may well be tempted to purchase a crisp, juicy apple, some zesty cheese or delicious fudge. (Some Walking)
