

How to Obtain an Abutters List

The Town of North Kingstown requires written notice of date, time and place of a public hearing and the nature and purpose thereof shall be sent to all owners of real property whose property is located in or within not less than 200 feet of the perimeter of the area proposed for change.

These instructions are meant as a guide in obtaining a list of property abutters

1. Go the Town website: www.northkingstown.org

The screenshot shows the homepage of the North Kingstown Rhode Island website. At the top left is the town's crest and logo. Below it is a navigation menu with links for Home, Residents, Business, Departments, Government, and eTown. The main content area features a large image of fireworks with the caption "Fireworks Display 2017". To the right of the fireworks image is a search bar with a "Search" button and a "Google Custom Search" logo. Below the fireworks image are two columns of content. The left column is titled "Municipal Offices" and provides the address "100 Fairway Drive North Kingstown, RI 02852", hours "M-F: 8:30am - 4:30pm", and phone number "(401) 294-3331". The right column is titled "Quick Links" and lists various services: Event Calendar, Recreation, Ordinances, History, Facebook, Bill Pay NK, eTown, Seniors, Jobs, Follow us on Twitter, Public Safety, and Meeting Recordings. On the far right, there is a "Town News" section with two news items. The first item is dated June 13 and is titled "Planning Commission Comprehensive Workshop has been cancelled", with a sub-link for "Residents". The second item is dated May 26 and is titled "Basketball Courts at McGinn Park".
