ALLEN HARBOR MARINA

Rules and Regulations – Wait Lists

Any person who desires to obtain a mooring or a dock space at the Allen Harbor Marina shall submit in writing, on the form provided by the Leisure Activities Department, an application for consideration. The Allen Harbor Marina will maintain the following wait lists on which shall be placed the names of all applicants and will be posted in the Leisure Activities Office:

- 1.) Resident Mooring List
- 2.) Resident Dock Space List
- 3.) Non-resident Mooring List
- 4.) Non-resident Dock Space list

Applicants will be assigned to the appropriate list according to where they are domiciled and whether they desire a mooring or a dock space. If an applicant wishes to receive the first available opening, he/she must be on both the Dock Space and the Mooring List and pay the fee for each list. Should a non-resident applicant become domiciled in North Kingstown, he/she would be moved to the resident list(s) and maintain the date previously listed on the non-resident list(s). Likewise should an applicant move from North Kingstown, he/she would be placed on the non-resident list(s) and maintain the date as previously listed on the resident list(s).

All applicants on the wait lists for greater than one year shall re-apply in writing annually by October 15 of each year to reconfirm their desire to remain on the appropriate list(s) and provide the size of the vessel and other pertinent data. When an applicant annually re-applies for the list(s), the date of the applicant's earliest consecutive application shall be used in determining position on the lists(s). A renewal application will be mailed annually by regular mail to each person on the on the wait lists to the person's last known address on file prior to October 15 to allow the applicant to confirm their desire to remain on the appropriate list(s). An applicant who fails to renew and return their application annually shall be dropped from the wait list(s). An applicant who is removed from a wait list will be notified by certified mail, return receipt.

Vacant moorings and dock space shall be offered first to applicants on the Resident Mooring and Dock Space Wait Lists based upon the length of time on the appropriate list(s) and whether the available vacancy will accommodate the vessel covered by the oldest application. The Town reserves the right to award the vacancy to the "longest waiting" applicant whose vessel can be safely accommodated by the available vacancy. All applicants on the resident wait lists must provide proof of residency as defined in the Allen Harbor Marina rules and regulations prior to being awarded a tenant contract. Should an applicant on the resident lists be unable to provide proof of residency, the offer shall be rescinded and the applicant shall be moved to the non-resident list as prescribed above for a resident becoming a non-resident. NOTE: The requirements of existing Allen Harbor Marina Tenants will be fulfilled prior to offering a vacant mooring or dock space to applicants from any of the Wait Lists.

All applicants notified of a vacancy prior to March 1 and who chooses not to accept it, shall lose their current position and placed at the bottom of the appropriate Wait List should they choose to remain on the list. All others shall be removed from the appropriate Wait List. Subsequent to March 1 an applicant who chooses to decline the offer of a vacant mooring or dock space shall be offered the opportunity to remain on the wait list in his/her current position.
